Hello xxxxxx

As long the food stays on board your boat as ships store or consumed on board the boat there are no restrictions.

The food must not be removed from the ship whilst on in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Regards

Matt Herve

Your query or comment	Hello, I plan to come from France (Brittany) to Guernsey and Jersey mid July with my sailing boat in order to visit the islands, and spend 2 to 4 days in the bailiwick. This is a leisure trip. I've just read that coming with milk, cheese, meat (excep chicken) is not allowed. My question is : is this prohibition also if I keep those goods inside the boat, or only if I bring them during my visit in the Island ? Thanks for your answer, in order for me to prepare my holidays Kind regards
